Bonus! Say It Another Way!

1. "The movie portrays."
   a. "The movie features."
   b. "The movie shows."

2. "The cinematography was beautiful in some scenes."
   a. "The visuals in the movie were amazing."
   b. "The visuals in the film were incredible."

3. "He's got some serious talent."
   a. "He's really talented."
   b. "He's so great at what he does."
   c. "He's really skilled at acting."

4. "Parts of American history were right in your face"
   a. "The movie boldly showed certain parts of American history."
   b. "It was impossible to ignore certain parts of American history that were featured in the film."
   c. "Parts of American history were shown in an intense way."

5. "The critics came down hard on it."
   a. "The critics didn't like it very much."
   b. "The movie was highly criticized."
   c. "The reviewers came down hard on it."

6. "I went to see it when it first came out."
    a. "I saw it when it was first released in theaters."
    b. "I saw it when it was brand new."

7. "They really captured the intensity."
    a. "They really caught the intensity."
    b. "They did a great job of showing how intense the situation was."

8. "That movie stands out in my mind."
    a. "I remember that movie clearly."
    b. "That movie is a standout in my mind."

9. "Let me know when the next drama comes out."
    a. "Tell me when the next drama is released."
    b. "Let me know when they come out with a new drama."