

Say It Another Way

1. 'We're going to be getting a bit of a cold snap'

- a. "We're going to be getting some cold weather."
- b. "We're going to get a string of cold days."

2. "...if you just bundle up"

- a. "If you just put on a lot of layers."
- b. "If you just dress warmly."

3. "Temperatures are supposed to be mild at the end of next week."

- a. "Temperatures are supposed to be a bit warmer at the end of next week."
- b. "Temperatures will become less extreme by the end of next week."

4. "It started off with a few flurries."

- a. "It started off with some very light snow."
- b. "It started off with only a few flakes of snow."

5. "The weather service said they would taper off."

- a. "The weather service said they would die down."
- b. "The weather service said they would come to an end."

6. "The winds just picked up."

- a. "The winds just got stronger."
- b. "The winds just intensified."

7. “Flurries turned into snow showers.”

- a. “Flurries turned into heavy snow.”
- b. “Flurries turned into snow coming down hard.”

8. “I slipped on a sheet of black ice”

- a. “I slipped on some clear ice on the sidewalk.”
- b. “I slipped on a patch of ice on the ground.”