

Do You Get Along with your Colleagues?

A: So how are things at your new job? Did you get through your first week?

B: Yeah I did but I am exhausted. There is so much to learn when you start a new job.

A: Do you get along with your colleagues?

B: Yeah, I would say so. A lot of them are really trying hard to get ahead in their careers though, so there's not much time for small talk.

A: I used to be really serious about my career too, but then I realized that I was missing out on time with my family and I got over it. How did you get into your field by the way?

B: Oh I majored in marketing in college and then I got an internship at a marketing firm the summer after I graduated so I have just stayed in this field ever since.

A: Well I hope things go well for you with this new position

B: Thanks I hope so too!
